

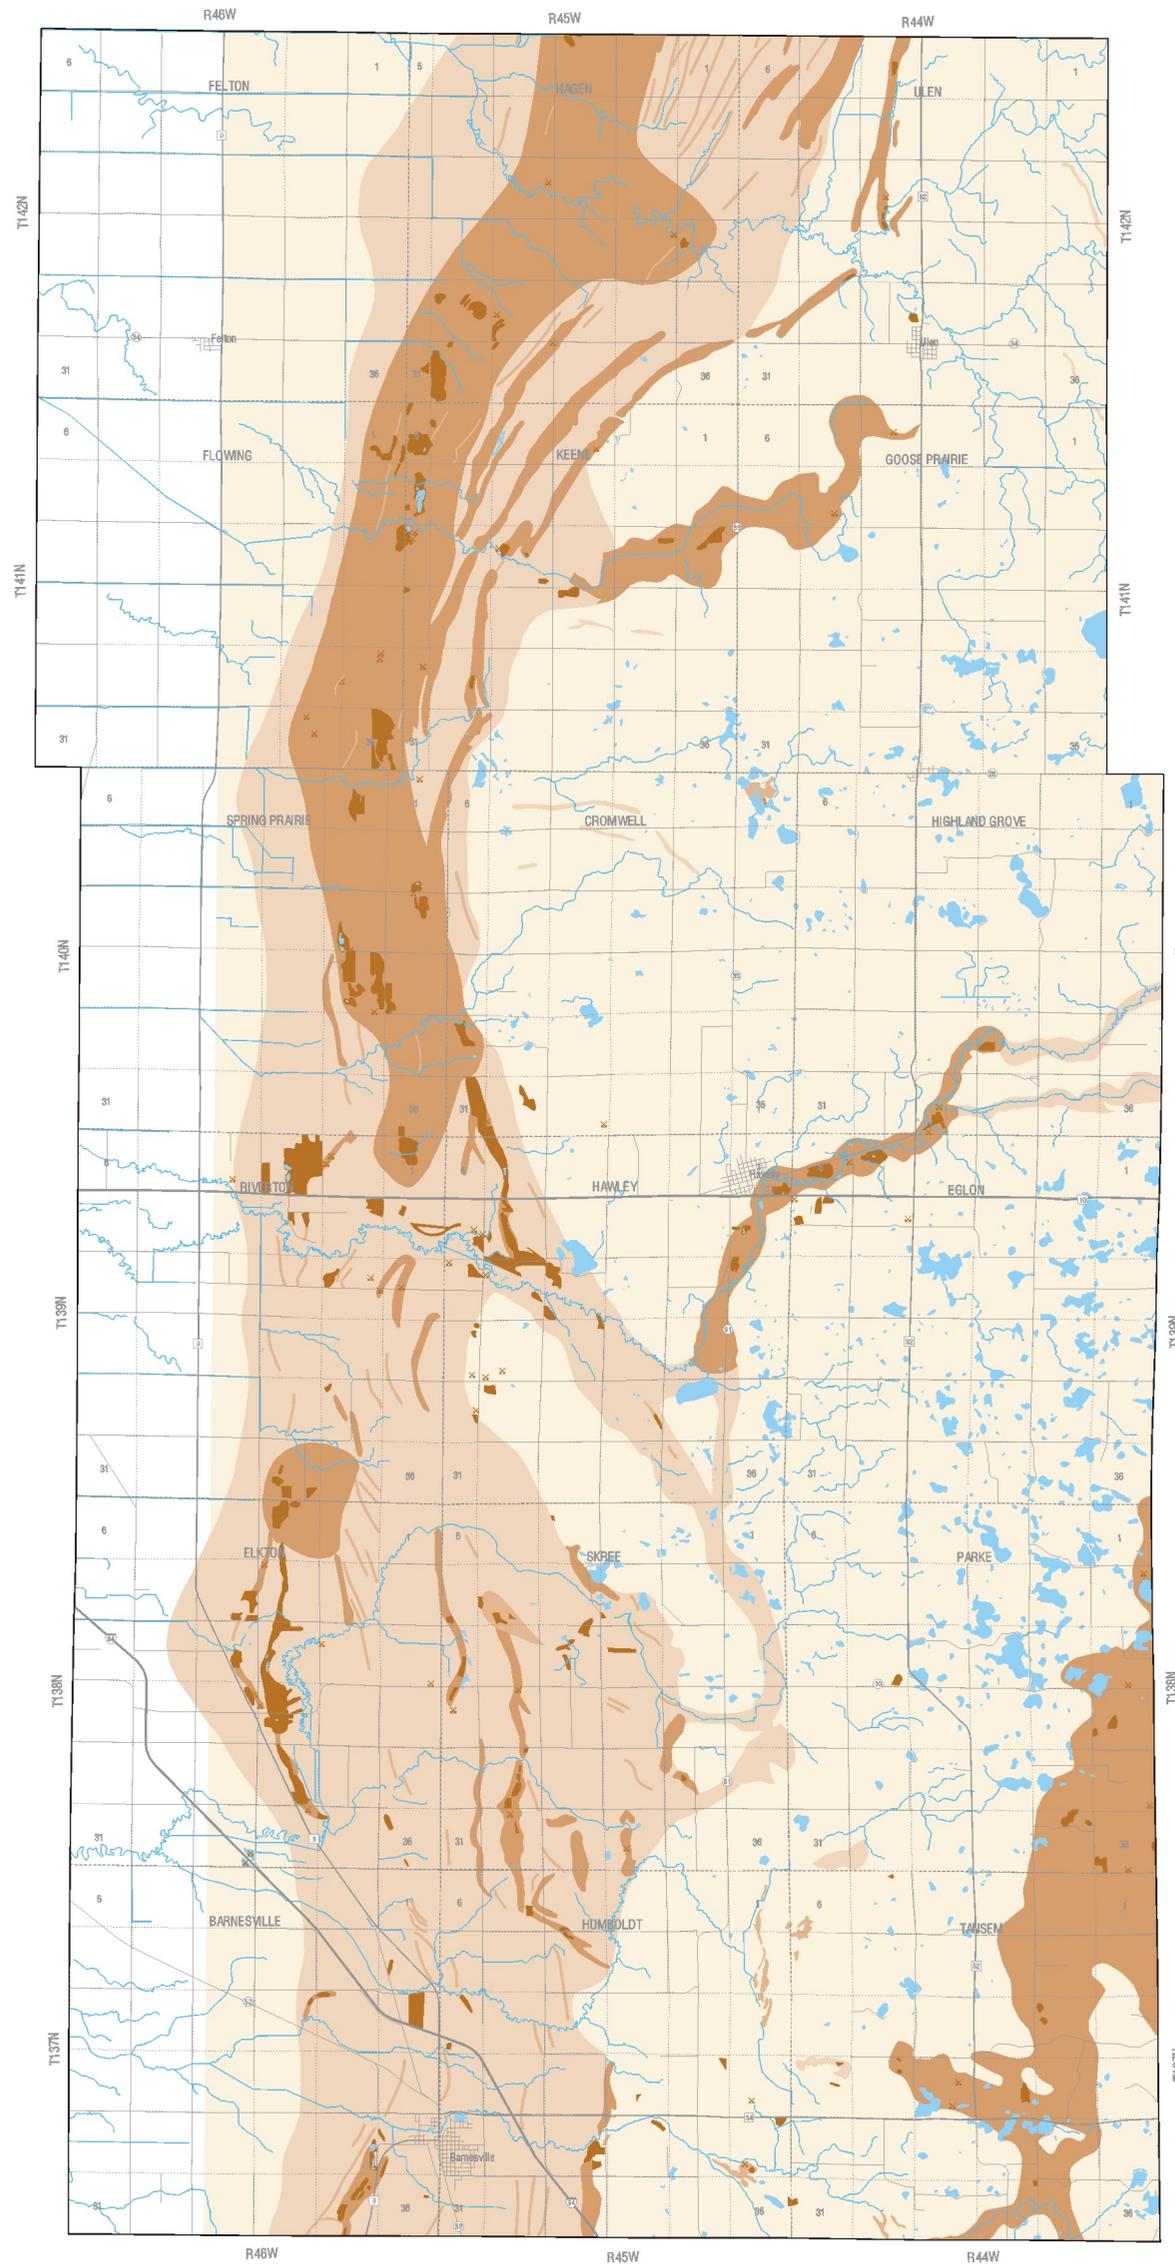

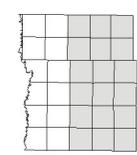

Figure 2-11

AGGREGATE RESOURCES EASTERN CLAY COUNTY, MINNESOTA

- Gravel pit
- Gravel pit (mapped as a point)
- High potential
- Moderate potential
- Slight potential
- Limited potential
- Water

0 1 2 3 Miles
0 1 2 3 4 Kilometers

Sources:
 (1) Aggregate potential and gravel pit locations based on air photo interpretation and field work done by J.D. Lehr, 1994-1996, as part of the Aggregate Mapping Program, Minnesota Department of Natural Resources, Division of Minerals.
 (2) Public Land Survey - PLS Project, Minnesota Department of Natural Resources, Division of Minerals.
 (3) State of Minnesota BaseMap, CD-ROM produced by Minnesota Department of Transportation, Surveying and Mapping BaseMap Development Group.

Created for the Clay County Beach Ridges Forum by the Minnesota Department of Natural Resources, Division of Minerals, June 1997.